Parking Tickets-Missed Court Dates or Payment Dates

When a court date or payment date is missed, a notice will be mailed to you at the address on file with the division of motor vehicles in the state where the vehicle is registered.

Each new notice will advise you of the new payment date and will increase the original fine by not less than $10.00. The notices will continue until the fine is paid or your license is suspended.

The Violations Bureau handles all information relating to parking tickets and moving violations.

The Violations Bureau is located at:

Paying Parking Tickets and Moving Violations

All parking tickets and moving violations may be paid in-person, by mail, or online as long as the ticket has not been marked "Court Appearance Required."

Tickets may be paid in-person at the Violations Bureau or by mailing a check or money order to the Violations Bureau.

The amount due is noted on the front or back of the ticket or court notice.

Write the ticket number on your check or money order and keep your cancelled check or carbon copy of the money order when paying by mail, since this will be your proof of payment.

A receipt will not be mailed to you.

Tickets may be also paid online at NJMCdirect.
