EVENTS RECAP

A Look At Past Events

Holland Street Clean-Up The Riverview Neighborhood Association in conjunction with the City of Jersey City and Councilman Michael Yun began the first phase of the Holland Street Beautification effort on Sunday, October 5.

Navrati Festival The Hindu Festival dedicated to the mother goddess Durga was celebrated the past two weekends on India Square. The street was alive with lights, music, and dancing. This annual celebration on Newark Avenue is promoted by the Jersey City Asian Merchant Assoc. and the Jorunal Square Restoration Corporation.

JC Fall Diversity Festival Oct 5 JC Families hosted the first annual festival to celebrate the city's rich culture and welcome the beginning of Autumn with live musical acts, dance performances, multi-cultural food, pumpkin decorating and other family activities. Caribbean soul salsa, Indian Bollywood, belly dancing, Irish pipe band and Indian drummers were just some of the activities witnessed at the festival.

Le Grand Bazaar JC Is the city's new weekly marketplace. Vendors will be selling a wide range of products and services, ranging from baked goods and handcrafted jewelry to records, books, vintage clothes, and CD's. It's focused on giving JC residents a chance to empty their closets and sell their used items to others along with providing a perfect marketplace for small businesses to self promote in a cost-effective way.
