EXECUTIVE ORDER OF THE MAYOR OF THE
CITY OF JERSEY CITY
FOR THE SALARY OF DEPUTY CHIEF OF POLICE

Pursuant to the Faulkner Act, N.J.S.A. 40:69A-48, as amended by L.1985, c.374, the Mayor is now authorized to set the salaries, wages or other compensation of all employees of administrative departments except department directors and employees whose salaries are required to be set by ordinance.

Pursuant to this authorization, I issue the following Executive Order establishing the salary and benefits of the Deputy Chiefs of Police and repealing all previous executive orders establishing salary or benefits for the position of Deputy Chief's of Police.

1. Pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 40A:14-179, the annual base salary of a Deputy Chief of Police, as of the date of this Executive Order, shall be set within a range between $126,533.00 and $134,000.00 and shall be further adjusted to ensure that the range of the base salary remain higher than the base salary of other ranking supervisory officers in the department.

2. Deputy Chiefs of Police shall be entitled to a uniform clothing allowance in the amount of $1,300;

3. A Deputy Chief of Police, as a non-union, appointed management employee shall receive the leave and other benefits established for managerial employees by E.O. 04-003 dated August 18, 2004, and any subsequent amendments thereto, except that:

(A) An employee appointed as a Deputy Chief of Police shall be vested with one hundred eighty (180) days sick leave upon appointment as Deputy Chief provided that upon retirement under PFRS from the position of Deputy Chief of Police or upon retirement under the PFRS from a previously held Police Superior Officer rank in the Jersey City Police department, the employee shall only receive payment for 80% of accrued sick leave that exceeds one hundred eighty (180) days.
