

Mayor Jerramian T. Healy,
Members of the Municipal Council, and the Office of City Planning in conjunction with several community organizations, invite you to

GROWING TOGETHER

Adopt-A-Lot: Community Gardening Program Kick-Off

Featuring a series of instructional workshops about Adopt-A-Lot: Community Gardening Program and the "How To" for starting a garden. There will also be a number of demo tables for composting, rain barrels, Environmental Clubs, and existing Community Gardens.

May 07, 2011 11:00am - 4:00pm

City Hall 280 Grove Street Jersey City, NJ

Introduction of "Growing Together" Adopt-A-Lot: Community Gardening Program

11:00 am, 1:15 pm, and 2:45 pm

How to Start a Community Garden

11:15am, 1:30 pm, and 3:00pm

Composting Workshops

Backyard Composting!

11:45 pm

Composting for Community Gardens

2:00 pm

Using the Bokashi Method

3:30 pm

CHILDREN'S GARDEN

Planting from 12:00pm - 3:00pm, all children are welcome to come and plant a flower in the Jersey City Children's Garden on the front lawn of City Hall

ALSO FEATURING

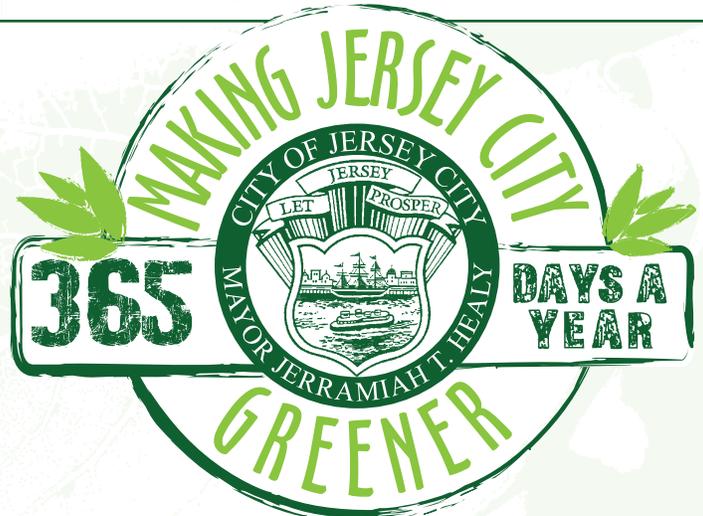

Green Map, Brunswick Community Garden, Riverview Community Garden, Jersey City Food Co-Op, New Jersey City University, Hudson County Community College, Washington Park Association Education Alliance, Bokashi Composting, and City Green/City Planning

Build your own Rain Barrel! Workshop by Rutgers Cooperative Extension

Take an active role in recycling rainwater - install a rain barrel at your house! Harvesting rain water has many benefits including saving water, saving money on your bill, and preventing basement flooding.

To build your own, pre-registration is required and costs $45 per barrel. Register at:

http://www.water.rutgers.edu/Stormwater_Management/rainbarrels.html#home

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL 201.547.4513 OR VISIT JERSEYCITYNJ.GOV