Jersey City Planning Division to Hold Two Public Meetings on McGinley Square Redevelopment Plan

JERSEY CITY – The Jersey City Division of City Planning will hold two public meetings on the McGinley Square Redevelopment Plan to outline the city's vision for the area as well as to answer questions for residents.

The meetings will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, July 21, 2011 and Wednesday, July 27, 2011, both at City Hall Council Chambers, 280 Grove Street.

The redevelopment plan is currently in draft form and is slated to go before the Planning Board on August 9th, 2011. If approved, it will be presented to the City Council for introduction on Aug. 10th for a vote on Aug. 31st.

Upon the direction of Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy, and with the concurrence of the City Council, this redevelopment plan will not include a list of properties to be acquired through eminent domain.

The city's plan is envisioned to be a mixed-use residential, dormitory and retail development with public plazas and improvements to the McGinley Square plaza. The plan may also include ground floor commercial, retail and restaurants and will permit larger entertainment uses such as a theater or a bowling alley, and may also include a hotel and office space.

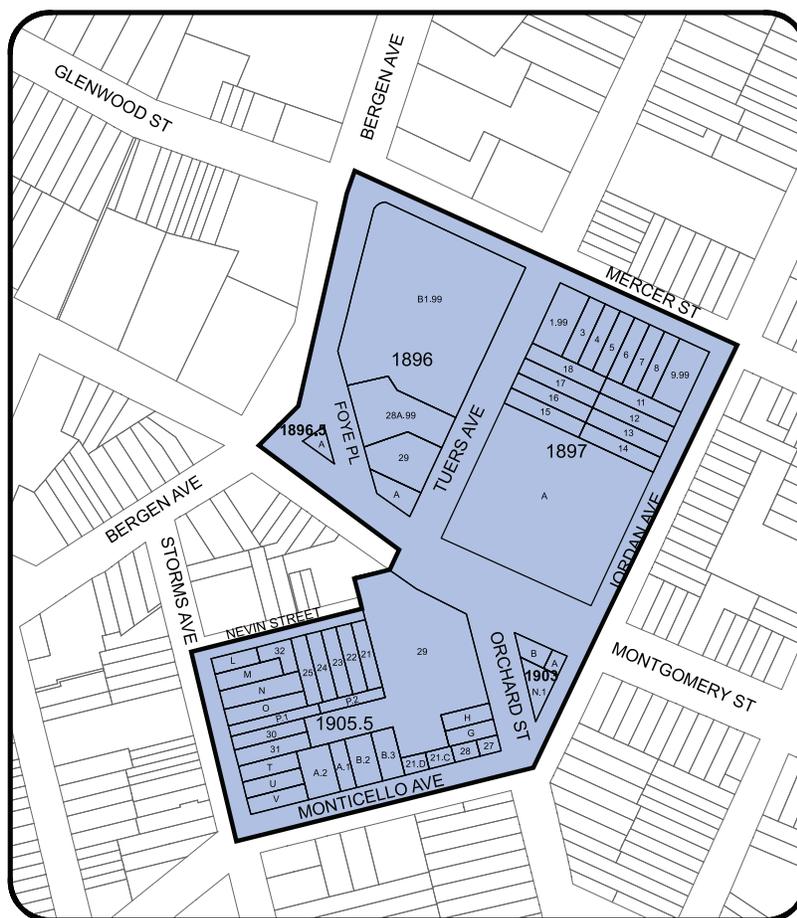

Anyone with questions about the McGinley Square Redevelopment Plan is encouraged to attend one of the two public meetings.

All media inquiries should be directed to Jennifer Morrill, Press Secretary to Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy at 201-547-4836 or 201-376-0699.///
