PUBLIC INVITED TO VIEW HISTORIC INAUGURATION AT CITY HALL

JERSEY CITY -- Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy and members of the Municipal Council invite all to witness history being made – Barack Obama’s Inauguration as United States 44th president on Tuesday, January 20, 2009 in City Hall Council Chambers. Doors open at 11:00 a.m.

“Barack Obama’s historic victory is an achievement the American people can be proud of,” said Mayor Healy. “We are a country known as the ‘Land of Opportunity’ and this moment is a testament to that. Regardless of whether or not Americans voted for Obama, one is given the hope that through their hard work and talent, they too can accomplish anything.”

City Hall will open its doors for the public to watch Barack Obama take the Oath of Office as the United States 44th president. The public can watch the inauguration live in the Council Chambers on a large screen.

This event is free and open to the public. Space is limited in City Hall Council Chambers and is available on a first come first serve basis. Absolutely no food or drink is permitted inside the Chambers.

For more information, please call the Division of Cultural Affairs at (201) 547-6921.

All media inquiries should be directed to Jennifer Morrill, Press Secretary to Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy at 201-547-4836 or 201-376-0699.///
